

Washington, DC – Congressman Steve King (R-IA) released the following statement today in celebration of the Christmas season. Additionally, King has announced the only Christmas wish on his list and wants others to send what they'd like to see from Washington, DC for Christmas this year via Twitter and Facebook using the hashtag #DCWishList.

Congressman Steve King wishes a Merry Christmas and shares his Christmas wish. Click here to watch.

"I want to wish you all a very, Merry Christmas as we remember the reason for the season being the celebration of the birth of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ," said King. "All across the state of Iowa, the United States of America, and around the world, people celebrate by exchanging gifts. And the only gift I am asking for, and I hope you can fit it into my stocking, is a Balanced Budget Amendment to the United States Constitution. If there are wishes that you would like Washington, DC to deliver to you in the coming New Year, please tweet them at me or comment on my using the hashtag #DCWishList. Thank you very much for your continued support. God bless you, and may you have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year."

Facebook